

Eligibility requirements

Who can partner with SoGerman?

Generally, all organizations who comply with the following criteria are permitted to create their profile and publish their activities on the website.

All German institutions that:

- benefit directly from public incentives;
- portray a timely image of Germany; and
- preserve and support German-Canadian relationships focusing on culture, education and science. For example: political institutions, German-cultural centers, German language schools and German private schools.

The following organizations also qualify:

- German or Canadian non-profit organizations that support the above defined goal.
- German-Canadian chambers of commerce.
- All German diplomatic representations in Canada.
- Canadian colleges or universities with a German focus that plan German-related activities.

The type of events, activities and projects that may be posted at SoGerman:

- Cultural events, public lectures and discussions with a focus on current German topics (i.e. culture, politics, society, language, etc.).
- Announcements such as scholarships, grants and other (i.e. academic, language, scientific, cultural) support programs promoting German-Canadian exchange or contests directed to scholars and students.

About SoGerman:

The website SoGerman is operated by the German Embassy in Ottawa, the Goethe-Institut and DAAD North America (German Academic Exchange Service).

For more information please contact the SoGerman team at info@sogerman.ca

